Cool. Calm. Connected

Logistics doesn't have to be a maze.

Who are WTA USA?

Throughout our 110-year history, WTA has remained a leader in freight management and customs brokerage services.

With our office located in Chicago, WTA USA transport all kinds of goods across North America and beyond with our network of global partners. We give all our clients a completely personalised experience, streamlining their supply chain and reducing overall costs.

With air, sea, overland and warehousing capabilities, we develop solutions that perfectly fit individual business needs. A specialism of our WTA USA team lies in navigating the complex customs brokerage requirements of the USA market.

We combine this expertise with cutting-edge visibility technology, which offers real-time tracking, invoicing and analytics, giving you complete supply chain transparency.

What makes us special is our approach to people. Both our customers and colleagues build long-term relationships with WTA. This is reflected in our 4.7* Trust Pilot score, which is exceptionally high, especially compared to other logistics companies.

Customs Brokerage

Navigating the intricacies of customs clearance requires expertise; a lack of familiarity with the process can lead to significant expenditures of both time and financial resources.

When working with us, we will perform all necessary steps to obtain U.S. Customs clearance for your clients, getting them released and transported to their final destination on time.

We work directly with U.S. Customs and government agencies, handling vast variety of commodities.

Areas of Expertise.

Whilst we can ship anything, some of our experts have skills in the logistics of some select industries that we'd like to highlight.

Food & Drink

The food and drink space is a huge specialty of WTA. We boast over 80 food and drink customers, including some leading brands. Our food and drink team is comfortable in dealing with the extra bureaucracy that comes with those products.

Ensuring your food and drink goods arrive in accordance with your timelines and in their original condition is of maximum priority.

Our flexible and tailor-made solutions allow your import and export strategy to add real value and reduce costs. Working in a true partnership, WTA will develop a comprehensive solution for you.
